Admission:

- Maximum 12 dogs per country, per breed and gender.
- If there are six dogs per gender and per breed at the start in the FCI Championship, one title can be awarded to the male winner and another to the female winner. If fewer than six dogs of either gender participate, dogs and bitches must compete together and only one title will be awarded (FCI regulations § 4.11).
- If a total of fewer than six dogs and bitches of any breed at the start, no title will be given. In spite of this the FCI delegate together with the Jury can decide to award the title if the circumstances so require. The prizes which have been announced will be awarded (FCI regulations § 4.11).
- If there are less than four dogs at the start, this particular breed cannot participate in the FCI Championship (FCI regulations § 4.11).

- A disqualification between the entry closing date and the date of the championship precludes participation.

The qualifying period for competing dogs who have only 1 result in their license book at the entry deadline, is extended from the entry deadline (19.07.2021) until two weeks before the start of the event (18.08.2021).

Qualification for finals: The dogs, which qualify for the finals, are selected based on the times they recorded in the preliminary heats.

Every dog, except for Greyhounds, must take part in a minimum of two preliminary heats, the final being the third race. The quicker of the times recorded in the two preliminary heats is the time, which will be used to qualify for the final.

For Greyhounds, only one preliminary heat is compulsory, a second one being optional.

The dogs with the six fastest times run in the final. (§4.16.1)
